

Doctoral Research Program

»Psycho-Social Impacts of Migration and Flight – Generational Dynamics and Adolescent Processes«

At the Sigmund Freud Institute Frankfurt/M.(SFI)

Supervision:

Prof. Dr. Vera King (Speaker): SFI & Goethe University Frankfurt am Main

Prof. Dr. Hans-Christoph Koller: University Hamburg

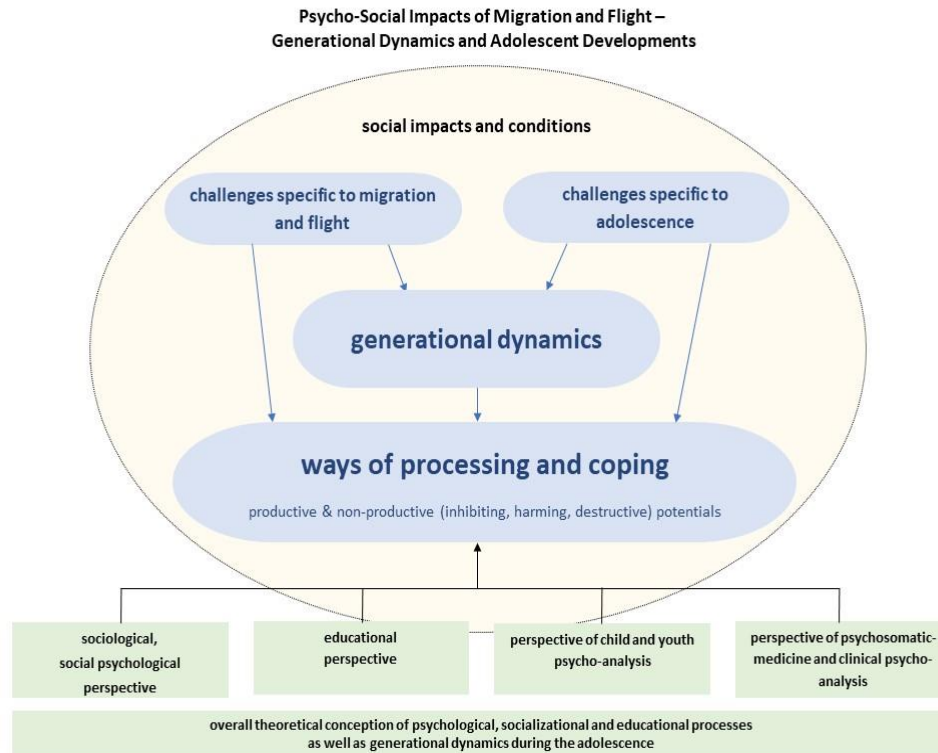

Prof. Dr. Patrick Meurs: SFI & University Kassel

Prof. Dr. Heinz Weiß: SFI & Univ. Tübingen, Robert Bosch Krankenhaus Stuttgart

Project Coordination: Dr. Susanne Benzel

The doctoral research program aims at the transdisciplinary research of psychosocial impacts of migration and flight in the light of precarious social conditions and frameworks. The qualitative studies focus on family relationships, adolescent processes and generational dynamics in the context of flight and migration.

Dissertation projects can be conducted in the fields of sociology and social-psychology, educational research on educational biographies, developmental psychology as well as in clinical psychoanalysis and medicine/psychosomatics.

Link to the Hans Böckler Foundation: <https://www.boeckler.de/36912.htm>

Link to the doctoral research program at the homepage of the Hans Böckler Foundation: <https://www.boeckler.de/112906.htm>